

TeachOntario^{BETA}

Welcome to TeachOntario (tvo.org/teachontario)
a new online community for Ontario's teachers, by Ontario's teachers.
Explore curated resources, share your knowledge and create new tech projects.

Engage in knowledge exchange and interact with a community of teachers across the province from JK-12. Stay up-to-date with the latest in teaching, digital tools, best practices and professional learning.

Get started with a few simple steps:

1. Register.

Go to www.tvo.org/teachontario, click on Register in the upper right corner and enter your name and school board email address. You'll receive a confirmation email. Now, you're on your way!

2. Introduce yourself.

Update your profile to quickly introduce yourself to the community. Just click on your avatar/image in the upper right corner, and follow the steps to edit your profile, change your picture, share information and adjust privacy controls.

3. Join the conversation.

To get the most out of the community, we encourage you to participate in the conversation. It's easy for you to share your ideas and experiences, as well as ask questions. You can also follow people and groups relevant to your interests, or create your own group!

4. Stay connected.

Stay connected to the community the way you want. Control how you receive email notifications on the content that matters most to you, and stay connected with community notifications and weekly e-blasts. Don't miss a thing!

5. Need help? Ask Albert. He's TeachOntario's Community Manger.

Need help getting to know how to use the community? Browse through the content in the Ask Albert space or ask a question by starting a discussion.

6. Send us your feedback.

This is your community and we value your feedback. Please let us know what you think of TeachOntario – and join the TeachOntario Beta Feedback Group.
